

Adventures and Fun in Yilan

宜蘭縣政府
Yilan County Government

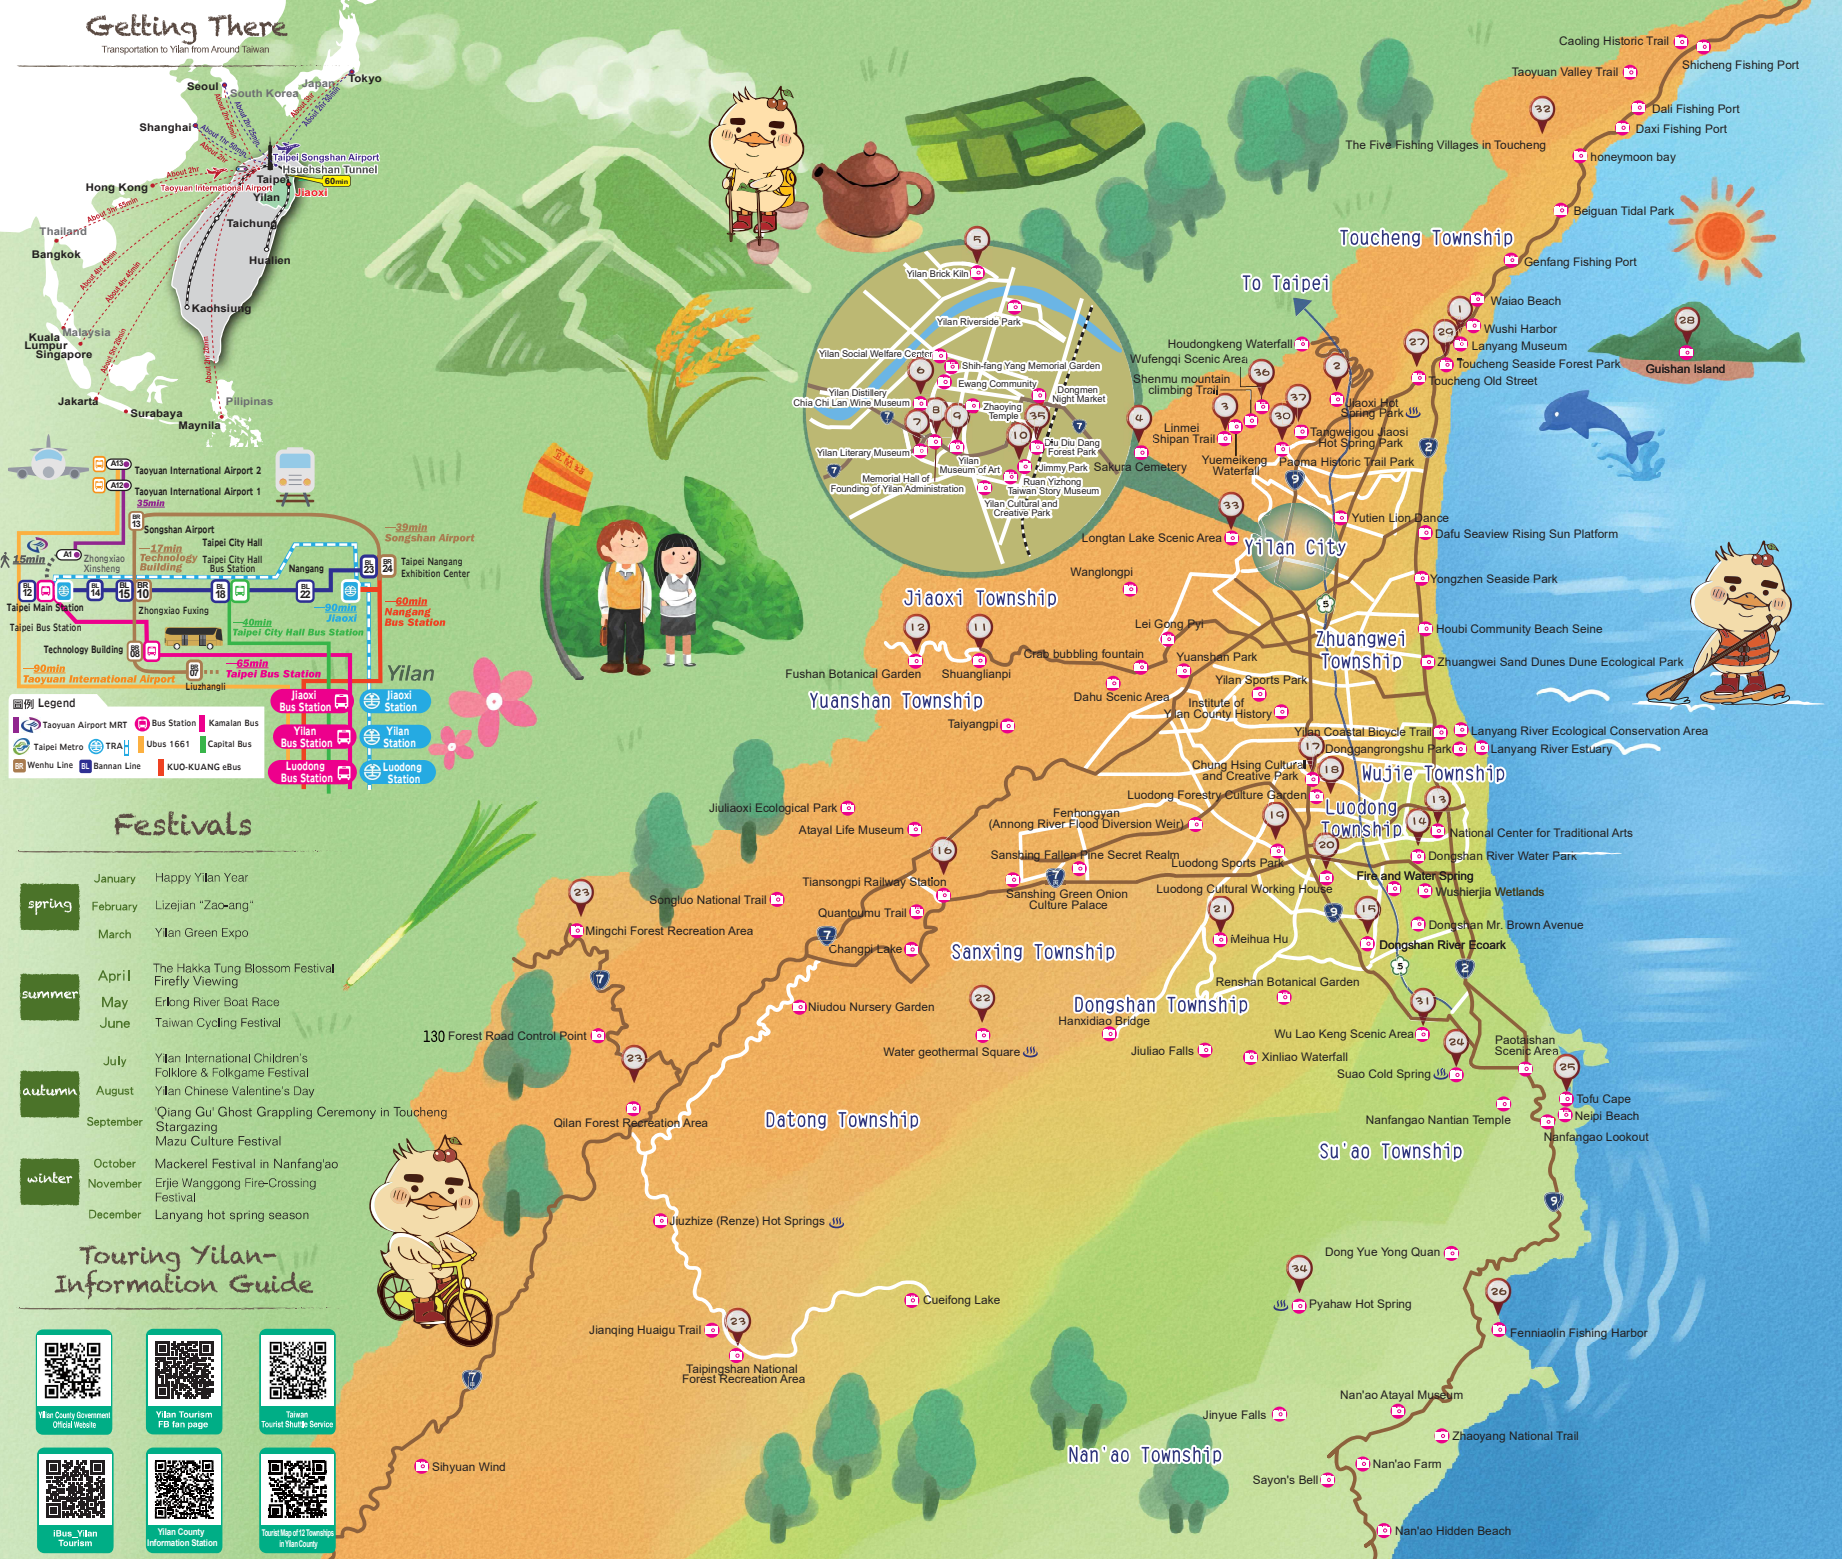

Yilan Taiwan Railway Administration (TRA)
Tourism Service Center
Kuo-Kuang Bus Lines Yilan station
Kamalan Bus Lines Yilan station
Capital Bus Lines

Yilan County Tourism Association
Yilan County Hotel Business Association
Yilan County B&B Association
Yilan B&B Legal Operators Strategic Alliance
Yilan County Travel Business Association
Yilan County Tourist Guides Association
Yilan County Hot Spring Industry Development Association
Yilan County Leisure Agriculture Development Association
Yilan County Tourism Factory Development Association
Yilan County Museum Family Association

Fantastic Fun Family Hotel Ever

silks
PLACE
YILAN

Enjoy Water and Greenery On a Fun and Relaxed Trip

Hot springs, ocean, forests, lakes, and rivers make Yilan County like a canvas of nature, a wonderland you can enter and wander through.

Fushan Botanical Garden

Taiwan is a treasure trove of ecology, with various scenery in every season. In addition to the fascinating native plants, you can also enjoy the sight of wild animals such as muntjacs, wild boars, mandarin ducks, etc.

Fenniaolin Fishing Harbor

In the serene fishing port of Wushih, the sea is azure blue. It is an ideal place to watch the sea rise from the horizon. The terrain is full of jagged rocks and strange stones, making it a mysterious sea for photographers and a seashore fishing paradise for anglers.

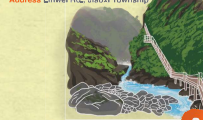

Guishan Island

It is a marine ecological park with rich and pristine natural resources. From March to November every year, more than a dozen species of cetaceans are found in the nearby waters. The cetacean breach, especially spinner dolphins, bottlenose dolphins, pygmy killer whales and false killer whales leaping out of the water. They even play hide-and-seek with passing fishing boats.

Linnei Shipan Trail

The green forests on both sides are cascaded with waterfalls, rich in ecology and have a beautiful subtropical valley view. The one-hour long loop trail is built along the old canal. The trail is spacious with a gentle slope, with a view of the Shipan Waterfall from above.

Wu Lao Keng Scenic Area

Campgrounds and cooking pavilions are laid out in the well-equipped Wu Lao Keng Scenic Area. In every spring season over the past few years, the Yilan Green Expo is held here by the Yilan County Government. The natural environmental protection theme pavilion has attracted numerous visitors to experience the mind-blowing discoveries of nature.

Longtan Lake Scenic Area

Longtan Lake is the largest among the five well-known lakes in Yilan. The original and natural rustic appearance is preserved. The surface of the lake is as clear as a mirror, projecting the reflection of the green hills into a picturesque sight. Walking or jogging on the trail around the lake is like an undulating dragon.

Suao Gold Spring
Open-air public and individual cold springs are laid out. The water is cool, rich in carbonate ions and sodium ions. It is the only calcium bicarbonate cold spring with naturally sparkling cold spring water and has a constant temperature of 22°C year-round.

Ludong Sports Park

With green, water, and health as the three major themes, the plan combined sports and recreation. The plan is fully established in landforms, waterscapes, vegetation, and related sports facilities, allowing one to enjoy the beauty of nature while exercising.

Dongshan River Ecoark

The park has eco-friendly living, green tourism and environmental education. The large area of native vegetation makes the park an excellent habitat for migratory birds. The bike trail along the shore is a great place for tourists to ride and stroll leisurely.

Jiaoxi Hot Spring Park

Jiaoxi has the largest hot spring area in Taiwan. The Jiaoxi Hot Springs Park preserved the original natural ecological environment. Furthermore, it is equipped with hot spring baths and an outdoor footbath area in a Japanese-style design, providing the public and visitors with the pleasure of bathing in hot springs all year round.

Water geothermal Square

The county government utilized the natural geothermal resources and planned out facilities for geothermal cooking and foot bathing, allowing visitors to picnic and relax with a hot bath.

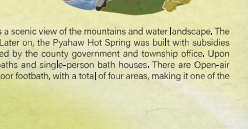

Taipingshan, Mingchi, and Qilan Forest Recreation Areas

Datong Township, with its lush peaks, is the best place to experience the beauty of the forest. Including Taiping Mountain, Qilan National Forest Recreation Area and Mingchi National Forest Recreation Area, etc. Among them, Qilan Mountain Cypress Forest is the only giant cypress tree cluster in Taiwan. The forest has a great variety of tree species, intertwining waterfalls and lakes, seasonal colorful red leaves, cherry blossoms, plum blossoms, and apricot blossoms decorated the forest with dazzling colors and blooms.

Tangweigou Jiaoxi Hot Spring Park

The natural spring water gushes into a stream and the stream rises into the air. The water and the land and the sightseeing pavilion are exquisitely designed. The hot spring pavilion is a unique landscape. The hot spring pavilion is a unique landscape. The hot spring pavilion is a unique landscape.

Toucheng Seaside Forest Park
Ocean view of Guishan Island is visible from the Park. The vintage octagonal scenic overlook pavilion is favored by photographers. Looking down at the vast expanse of the landscape from the scenic overlook, the sight reveals the mind and body. The park is open to land recreation and camping activities, making it a great place for parents and children's leisure activities and dating trips and go out on holidays.

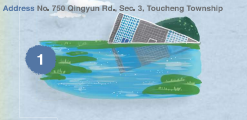

Local Atmosphere, Art Tourism

Yilan has developed agriculture, industry, business and culture in its own unique way over the years. These characteristics can be witnessed in the people's daily life. Yilan's arts and humanities are infused with constant innovation as cultural traditions and styles are respected and preserved.

Lanyang Museum

Using the common "caveats" mountains in the Beiguan Sea in Taiwan as the architectural concept, the characteristics of Yilan's climate, topography and biological species. Three permanent exhibition halls, "The Mountain", "The Plain" and "The Ocean", are planned to convey the intertwining plain, mountain, and ocean characteristics of the Lanyang Plain and the historical value of Yilan.

Ludong Forestry Culture Garden

The locomotives that were used for timber transport in forestry and passenger compartments from the early era are preserved. In regard to its original form, the former locomotive compartments have been transformed into an art and cultural exhibition space which exudes a strong Japanese style. Explorations for the development of the forestry industry in Taiping Mountain can be carried out upon visits.

National Center for Traditional Arts

In addition to the theater, opera house, and old street scenery, additional facilities such as the Misty Forest and the jumping fish Yayoi Tunnel (魚躍隧道), have been established, making it one of the best choices for family trips. Local artists and traditional arts and crafts can be seen here, gaining a deeper experience of the heritage and innovation of Taiwanese arts.

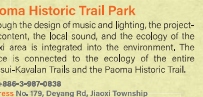

Ludong Cultural Working House

The cultural working house emphasizes the multi-functional art and cultural space. It has an event-stage, style, and is a showroom for the works created by many local artists. Combining sports, ecology and recreational functions, all the related facilities fully integrate with the landscape, perfectly interpreting the local atmosphere of Ludong.

Tourist Factories

In addition to the beautiful mountains and water, Yilan is also the birthplace of many traditional industries in Taiwan. As times change, these old industries with deep industrial culture are attempting to transform, adding tourism features to the original factories and developing individual characteristics and creativity, making them the first choice for family trips.

Wufengqi Scenic Area
The Wufengqi Waterfalls are located in Jiaoxi Township, Yilan County. The summit of the mountain is surrounded by clouds and mist all year round, and the spring water keeps rushing down from the mountain, forming a three-tiered waterfall. A waterfall viewing pavilion sits by the middle waterfall, where the multiple layers of emerald-green hills and the stream emerging from the rocks can be overlooked. This is the "Refreshing Breeze from the West Peak," one of the Eight Scenic Spots of Lan Yang.

Jimmy Park

In the former railway dormitory area near the Yilan Railway Station, characters in 3 artworks, "Turn Left, Turn Right", "The Story Night", and "The Sound of Colors" by the well-known picture book author and illustrator Jimmy Liao, are brought to life under the theme "Remembering a Scenic Moment". In 3D models, it is a photo-taking paradise for visitors.

Yilan Distillery Chia Chi Lan Wine Museum

Yilan County liquor, red rice wine, the Hungkuh chow, kumquat wine, and red label rice wine are produced in Yilan Distillery. The ancient building inside the distillery embodies the epitome of 100 years of history. Leisure facilities such as the Yilan Distillery Chia Chi Lan Liquor Museum, Hungkuh Art Gallery, and TIL Sales Center are well established.

Chung Hsing Cultural and Creative Park

The cultural and creative park not only allows visitors to stroll around and admire the unique industrial heritage of paper mills, but also focuses on talent nurturing, art co-creation and supporting industries. It allowed the public to experience the innovating and flourishing spirit of cultural and creative arts not only from the new start, but also from the "heart".

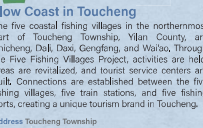

Sakura Cemetery

The Cherry Orchard Cemetery is situated on Daijiao Mountain. The park-like design of the cemetery and the streamline shaped wall of the "Cherry Orchard Bridge" entrance are combined with geometric patterns to give a modern sensation. It is also an excellent viewpoint overlooking the Lanyang Plain and the Pacific Ocean.

Diu Diu Dang Forest Park

Jimmy Park was designed by architect Hsueh Sheng-Yuan. It creates a unique image resonating with Yilan's former name, Jiaoxing (九芎). Substrate Crane Myrtle City. He integrated Jimmy Liao's master picture book author and illustrator's work into the installation art concept of the plaza design. Jimmy's ingenious and whimsical story "Story Night" and the unique Wonderful Tree and red-brick house (百果樹紅磚屋) nearby constitute a rich artistic atmosphere.

Slow Coast in Toucheng

The five coastal fishing villages in the northernmost part of Toucheng Township, Yilan County, are Shichang, Dai, Gengfeng, and Waisha. Through the Five Fishing Villages Project, activities are held, areas are revitalized, and tourist service centers are built. Connections are established between the five fishing villages, five train stations, and five fishing ports, creating a unique tourism brand in Toucheng.

Nanfang'ao Fishing Port
Nanfang'ao, known as the "Home of Mackerel," has a scenic overlook where the land and seascape of Neip Beach, Nanfang'ao villages, Tofu Caps, Suao Port, and other scenic spots can be seen, each with its own expanse of day and night views. And in Nantian Temple, the center of worship, stands a 203-kilogram, majestic and magnificent "Golden Man", always guarding and protecting the residents.

Leisure Farms

Agricultural tourism is a popular type of tourism theme in Yilan. Many recreational farms make use of the local landscape, natural ecology and environmental resources to combine the production of agriculture, forestry, fishing, animal husbandry, farming operating activities, culture, and farmers' lives to provide visitors with leisure and local rural experience.

Peanut Ice Cream Rolls

Peanut ice cream rolls are made by placing a layer of ground peanuts' cherry spring roll skin, with a scoop of ice cream on top. The dessert is sweet, chewy, smooth, and not at all sticky or greasy. In light of taste has increased many visitors. It's extremely delicious and popular, it's a bargain value.

Milk Pudding Rolls

Milk pudding rolls are made by adding a number of different flavors of milk pudding to a moist and tender sponge cake with a dense milk aroma. The roll and sweet taste and light and soft texture is absolutely delicious. Yilan often live up to buy this dessert. It goes together well with afternoon tea. Extremely delicious and inexpensive, it's a bargain value.

Boh-bah

Out pork ketchup into the album. Minimize in soy sauce, five-spice powder, and ground pepper. Coat the pork slices in batter and deep fry until golden brown. Drain the oil. The outer skin is crispy and fragrant, while the tender skin is firm yet soft. Sprinkle with pepper and ketchup to enhance its flavor and you have Boh-bah.

String of hearts

For this delicious confection, pig lungs, chicken gizzards, aniseeds, fennel, and sausage are stuffed in a hot skin and held together by a hot skin. A delicious string of hearts of Yilan, whose rich warmth is not suddenly apparent but always shines through. A typical local dish, it is equally at home on the streets or at state banquets.

Gaojia

A deep-fried snack cooked in chicken bone, gaojia is a traditional Yilan delicacy. Gaojia is a traditional Yilan delicacy. Gaojia is a traditional Yilan delicacy. Gaojia is a traditional Yilan delicacy.

Seeking Past Charms and Glories

Many stories lie within the halls of historic landmarks. The echoes of history are contained within every detail, recording the bright and bittersweet moments of the past.

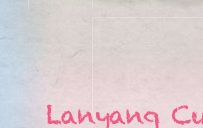

Memorial Hall of the Founding of Yilan Administration

The Memorial Hall is constructed using cypress from the Taiping Mountain with a fusion of Japanese and Western style architectural design. It used to be the official residence of the county governors and is now a heritage museum showcasing Yilan's 100-year history of county government. The spacious green courtyard and the dry landscape garden (枯山水) make it a comfortable place for travelers to saunter around and experience the ancient architecture and the atmosphere of the past.

Yilan Literary Museum

The Yilan Museum of Literature exudes a rich Japanese style and literary atmosphere. Various types of tea beverages and literary books are offered at the museum. Behind the short red brick wall covered with greenery, the dark wooden exterior of the building greets every guest with a serene atmosphere. Make yourself at home and savor the relaxing and comfortable time for literature reading.

Lanyang Cuisine - Fresh and Delicious

With abundant food and natural resources, the Lanyang Plain provides numerous delicious culinary delights made with local agricultural ingredients. A selection of 10 famous dishes and souvenirs is introduced as follows:

Scallion Pancakes

Savory scallion are well known for their fine consistency and delicious flavor in cooking. Pancakes fried in oil with minced scallions produce a pleasing salty flavor and crispy texture. Taken with a fried egg or flavored with sauces, scallion pancakes offer varied rich flavors. Visually appealing from street vendors, your nose will attract you to their delicious taste.

Baked flat pancake with chopped green onion

Crispy baked flat pancake with chopped green onion is integral to the childhood memories of the locals. Yilan is well known for its green onions produced in Taiping Township. Flat pancakes, a traditional dish at least half a century old, are made with finely chopped green onion added to a leavened dough and flavored with five spice powder. The flat pancake is beloved for its light crispness and flavor.

Cow Tongue Biscuits

This biscuit is made by combining flour, sugar and honey together and then rolling the batter into a long and narrow shape. After then cutting them at room temperature, chill them first for a different taste experience. Locals like to give their children as a snack or use them as offerings in religious ceremonies.

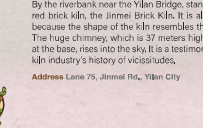

Toucheng Old Street

Through the red brick arches, several old merchant houses are shown, all of which were once great merchants. Among them, the Lu-Zuan-Zhuo House remains luxurious with its stilted roof, gray tiles, and round arched windows. The prosperity of the old days can still be felt when visitors stop and appreciate the heritage of the old streets.

Yilan Brick Kiln

By the riverbank near the Yilan Bridge, stands an undisturbed 100-year-old red brick kiln, the Jimmei Brick Kiln. It is also called "Muzai kiln" (目字窑) because the shape of the kiln resembles the Chinese character "目" (目). The huge chimney, which is 37 meters high and has a 2.5-meter diameter at the base, rises into the sky. It is a testimony to the once-prosperous brick kiln industry's history of vicissitudes.

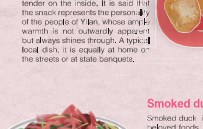

Pork-Meat Soup/Rice Noodle Soup

The winter in Yilan is chilly and rainy, and a bowl of hot and hearty pork-meat soup is the most favorite food to get warm and palatable satisfaction. Originally a roadside diner, meat soup, is covered with seasoned lean meat chunks in soup enriched with starch powder. The meat is firm and contains the flavor of the fragrant, sweet, and smooth starch soup, creating a simulation that leaves a lingering aftertaste.

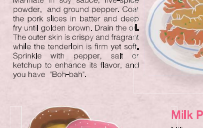

String of hearts

For this delicious confection, pig lungs, chicken gizzards, aniseeds, fennel, and sausage are stuffed in a hot skin and held together by a hot skin. A delicious string of hearts of Yilan, whose rich warmth is not suddenly apparent but always shines through. A typical local dish, it is equally at home on the streets or at state banquets.

Gaojia

A deep-fried snack cooked in chicken bone, gaojia is a traditional Yilan delicacy. Gaojia is a traditional Yilan delicacy. Gaojia is a traditional Yilan delicacy. Gaojia is a traditional Yilan delicacy.

Boh-bah

Out pork ketchup into the album. Minimize in soy sauce, five-spice powder, and ground pepper. Coat the pork slices in batter and deep fry until golden brown. Drain the oil. The outer skin is crispy and fragrant, while the tender skin is firm yet soft. Sprinkle with pepper and ketchup to enhance its flavor and you have Boh-bah.

Milk Pudding Rolls

Milk pudding rolls are made by adding a number of different flavors of milk pudding to a moist and tender sponge cake with a dense milk aroma. The roll and sweet taste and light and soft texture is absolutely delicious. Yilan often live up to buy this dessert. It goes together well with afternoon tea. Extremely delicious and inexpensive, it's a bargain value.

