Kaohsiung

Welcome to Taiwan!

Port of Keelung and Port of Kaohsiung are two main turn around ports in Taiwan and which are managed by Taiwan International Ports Corporation (TIPC). TIPC is focusing on improving port facilities at both ports to enhance services for cruise ships and passengers.

Port of Keelung

Wharf E2-4: Renovation with green roof, shops, and sky corridor to provide more space and improve passenger services.

Wharf W2-4: Dredging to enable berthing of cruise ships up to 225,000gt.

Port of Kaohsiung

New Kaohsiung Cruise Passenger Terminal: Accommodate to 225,000gt. and provides more comprehensive CIQS. To operate in January, 2020.

Pier #1-10: Renewal recreation zone which combined with Cruise Terminal, asian cuisines, cultural and creative workshops, art display, and recreation parks.

The Great Harbor Bridge: The first horizontal revolving bridge in Taiwan which connect port to downtown.

Kaohsiung Port Warehouse No.2(KW2): It was a historical warehouse built more than 100 years and now renew to provide dining, bars, shops and Merry-go-around.
